

To whom it may concern,

For a book devoted to 400 years of Shakespeare theater posters by Steven Heller and Mirko Ilić, we would like you to submit any posters you have designed for Shakespeare plays.

Your poster design for Shakespeare plays is a part of an amazingly rich legacy that only gets richer with every passing year. So, in honor of the 400th anniversary since the Bard's passing, we are creating a volume with Princeton Architectural Press, that showcases some of the greatest graphic performance posters.

Filling out the attached form grants us the unexclusive right to reproduce your work in all editions – print and electronic – of the book as well as for promotional and review purposes. Please fill out one form per piece with all requested information.

Please send JPGs or TIFFs of the works at 10 inches on longest side of image at 300dpi. If you are sending more than one image, please do not attach the high resolution images to your email. Upload all your images to a file sharing program such as WeTransfer or Hightail. Or you can upload the images and include the URLs in your reply. Or you can send a CD/DVD to the address below.

We are also looking to organize a major exhibition of the original posters to both promote the book and bring attention to Shakespeare's continued presence in modern day theater. Please mail a copy of the actual printed poster for inclusion in the show, if possible.

Deadline for complete submission is January 1st, 2015.

Submitted designs must be published posters, no student and personal work, please.

We are looking forward to having your work included in this book.

For any further questions please email us at:

Very sincerely,
Steven Heller and Mirko Ilić, Authors
